

Coast Guard Spouses Association
Scholarship Award Plan 2003-2004

Eligibility for Award

1. All applicants must be a spouse of an active duty Coast Guard currently stationed in Hawaii.
2. The applicant must be pursuing a associate, undergraduate or graduate degree.
3. The applicant must be currently enrolled in a program or has proof of admission to a program.

Criteria for Award

The scholarship award shall be based upon the following criteria

- A. Completion of the application form
- B. Personal Essay

Application

Submit a complete original application with all the required enclosures (listed below) to the Scholarship Chairperson: Edna Magpantay-Monroe

1511 Nuuanu Ave #236
Honolulu, HI 96817

- A. Completed application form
- B. Copy of sponsor's and applicant's military ID card (front and back)
- C. Personal essay (1-2 pages, typed double spaced) discussing applicant's goals and how furthering education will help attain these goals)

Applications must be complete and postmarked or received by 8:00pm on Nov 7, 2003. The applicant will receive a confirmation by mail that the application was received and complete. If the application is incomplete, the applicant must resolve discrepancies by the same date an time , so early submission is encouraged

Number and Amount of Awards

The 2003-2004 executive board will determine the number and amount of scholarship award(s).

Selection Committee

- A. Composition: The selection committee will be selected by the scholarship chair with the approval of the executive board. Decision of the selection committee are final. Family members of the selection committee are disqualified in applying for the scholarship.
- B. Duties: To select a winner or an alternate winner in the event that a winner cannot accept the award for any reason.

Recipients Use of Award

- A. The Scholarship must be used by the award winner at an accredited 2-4 year college university school during the 2004 academic school year.
- B. The award money may be used for the payment of tuition, books, or fees charged by Finance of Business office of the school.
- C. The recipient must provide a copy of proof of enrollment to CGSA treasurer prior to receiving the award money.

All inquiries must be directed to Edna Magpantay-Monroe, Scholarship chair
391-8001 or MSRNANP@hawaii.rr.comr